There is a separate index for each country and State in the United States.

Date following name is usually the birth date, but in some of the early portions it may be burial date, or baptism or marriage. When other than the birth date is used it is because it is the only positive date we have with that name.

FRANCE

JEAN DE CHERI

1407 of the de Cheries of Picardy and Normandy, Lords of Beauval, Liguere and Villencourt, sought in 1407 from the King of France permission to pass into Normandy for the purpose of arranging some family affairs there.

1418 By an Inq. Post Mort- It appears that Thomas and his son John (Jean de Cheri of 1407) held lands in Plympton and North Hampton and from this Thomas and John his son descend the present representatives of the family in England.

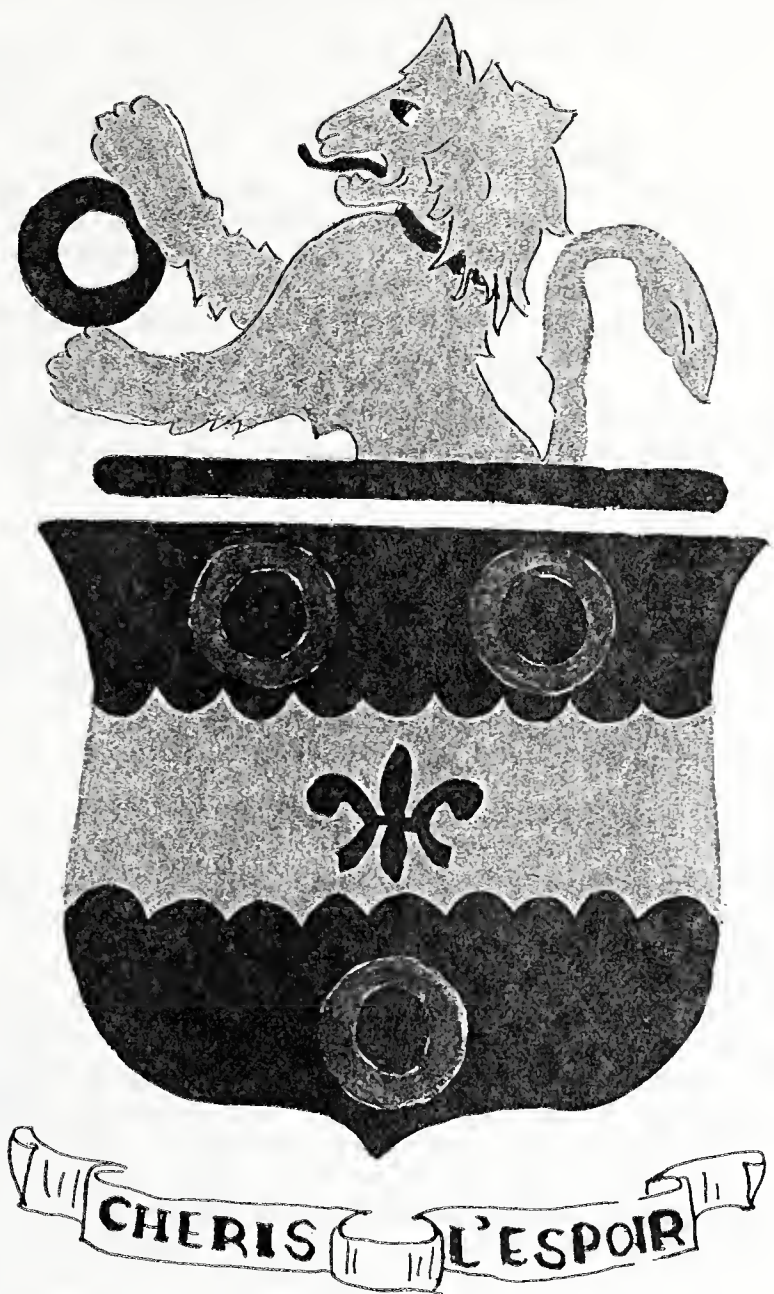

1596 "de Cherie, squires, lords of Beauval and of Liugiere. This family which originated in Normandy proceeds from Christopher Cheri, squire, sire of Beauval, married by the contract of the 4th of Dec 1584 to Adrienne de Villers and was affirmed by J de Beruage the 8th of Nov 1717. Of gold, with two confronting lions of sable, tongues of gules, upholding a heart of the same color. Supports and crest, three silver greyhounds collared in gules.

Christopher de Cherie was ennobled by letters patent of King Henry the Fourth in the year 1596. From Genealogical and historical archives of the French Nobility under the heading, "General Lists of Nobility of the French Provinces- Picardie- Division of Amiens."

1593 Henry the Fourth turned Catholic to stop the religious war in France. He issued edict of Nantes giving Huguenots freedom of Worship in 1598. Henry was assassinated by Ravallac, Mary de Medici wife of Henry administered the government. Then her son Louis XIII came of age he chose Cardinal Richelieu as his chief minister. Richelieu wanted to make the power of the king absolute and make France supreme in Europe.

An armory that gives descriptions of arms of French families gives it with a lion rampant and stars on the shield.

About 70 000 French people came to England at this time.

quartered with that of Sir Francis, only difference being that the rings in the shield are red and lion holds gold ring in paw. Motto same as the French family,
"Cheris L'Espoir."

1552 Francis b Oct 18 at N.Kilworth- Knighted at Chatham July 4 1604-Embassador from Queen Elizabeth to 1605 at All Hallows, Founder of the Cherry family of Camberwell.

1554 Robert- no record- think he went to Ireland

1556 Henry " "

As there were members of the Cherry family in Ireland quite early and many Englishmen went there during and after Queen Elizabeth's reign, we think it entirely possible that Robert and Henry whose names disappear from the English records were the Founders of the Irish branch of the family. The name Robert especially comes down in the Irish families.

From the "Hundreds of Bray," p 60

"On the north side of the churchyard, and within its precincts, stands the ancient chantry chapel of Bray; converted about the year 1683 by William Cherry, esq., into a parish school house, for which purpose it was used until the erection of the new school building at Holyport. The building is of the Early Decorated style, circa 1300, and is therefore coeval with the most ancient portions of the church. There is a handsome piscina near the east end in the south wall. Many interments have taken place within the building in ancient times. The stones (evidently gravestones) were removed in 1631, as appears by an entry in the old church accounts. The old layer of grouting remains undisturbed beneath the present floor."

(This might account for the lack of burial records of many of the Cherry family.)

p 64

"Extract from Chancery decree dated June 1 1717. William Cherry, late of Shottesbrook, Esq., did about thirty-five years since, at his own charge, convert an old chappell standing in the churchyard of the Parish of Bray, and into a school room and library, and did place in several schoolmasters with the allowance of Twenty Pounds a year for the teaching of twenty poor boys gratis, but falling afterwards into some trouble and having contracted great debts upon his estate, he did for several years before his death, which happened in 1706, withdraw the said allowance, and did not appoint any schoolmaster there; but by his will dated Aug 30 1703, devised several lands & in the said will mentioned, to trustees for the payment of his debts; and did by his will appoint, that, when the debts due and owing by him should be paid, and the debts due and owing to him, out of the Duke of Buckingham's estate should be gotten in, then his will was, that a rent charge of Twenty Pounds per annum, or lands to the clear yearly value of Twenty pounds should be settled toward the maintenance of a schoolmaster at Bray School at the discretion of his son Francis, if he should die before he settled a school there, and made Charles Austen and Matthew Holden since deceased, executors and trustees.

With the sum of Five Hundred Pounds, the executors purchased the estate at Bray Woodside, which now produces thirty pounds per annum.

On the 31 Jan 1803 Townley Ward Esq. gave the sum of one hundred pounds to the school trustees to be placed in the funds at 3% etc. New school built in time of Queen Victoria.

"Thomas Hearne, of White Waltham, the celebrated antiquary, received his early education at Bray School, where he was taught the rudiments of the Latin tongue, sometime about the year 1693.

"Hither therefore, he went on foot every morning, and came home every evening, though the place was situated three miles from his father's house. At Bray Hearne appears to have made great progress; and in a short time afterwards through the kindness of his munificent patron Francis Cherry Esq., of Shottesbrook he entered St. Edmund's Hall in Oxford in the 17th year of his age. After his matriculation, he returned again to Mr. Cherry's and there by his direction and appointment he went again to school at Bray, returning home at night to Mr. Cherry's house. This he did till Easter term 1696, when he returned to pursue his studies at Oxford."

He died in 1735 and was buried at St. Peters in the East Oxford. In the course of his life he published no less than 66 works most of which were translations of ancient MSS never before published.

In Hearne's MSS Diaries, dated July 11 1731 he wrote:
"At Brick bridge our Princes frequently came at the time of hunting in Windsor Forest. A little way from this bridge was a very large pleasant oak, said to be the biggest in England, called 'Nan's Oak,' because tradition reported that King James' first queen, Anne was much delighted with it;
that she sickened under it, and some say, this sickness proved mortal. The tree was cut down in the beginning of King James (the second's) reign (to the no small resentment of the country people) by order of William Cherry, Esq.
father of, but of different principles from, my best friend,
Mr. Francis Cherry." (T. Hearne))

OLD BALLAD

Cherry planted the Hawthorn tree near to Brick-bridge,
And wronged the poor people of their privilege.
He cut down the oak-tree, where Queen Anne did dine,
And said of the commons, "All this shall be mine,"

White Waltham was troubled, their common ta'en in;
So quick they resolved to make suit to the king,
Twas one, Master John Berry, who at Windsor did live,
That direct to the king their petition did give.

Said the King, when hunting one day very merry,
"Who took in this common?" they said "Twas Squire Cherry."
"Then pray," quoth the king, "Why not throw it out?
It is a great wrong to my subjects no doubt."

They answered the king, "That we dare not pursue, Cherry is a great man, and he will us undo."
"Go throw it out quickly, without any fail,
And if any one trouble you, I'll be your bail."

So they all went to work by the leave of their king,
And dug up the quicksets, and filled the ditch in.
Then up came Squire Cherry, pretending great power,
And threw them in prison as strong as a tower.

They hired a brave fiddler to play them along;
And he played till they came to the prison so strong.
They bade him play briskly, and spare not a string,
For they were resolved to dance to the king.

The king heard the news, and from prison away
He brought them to Windsor, and caused them sto stay.
And to each of them he ten guineas did give,
To enable them better thereafter to live.

A dinner was given, so at Berry's they dined,
And pushed about briskly good ale, punch, and wine;
They ate and they drank, and did merrily sing-
"May Cherry be damned, but God save the King."

The records say that Sir Francis Cherry is the founder of the Cherry family of Camberwell. As Edward went to Ireland, Francis died young, and there is a possibility that Francis and Richard went to America, it would leave only Robert and his wife Elizabeth Stokely at Camberwell.

ROBERT CHERRY b 1554- no record- We find the name Robert often in the Irish families- in Pa 1742, and in S.C. where he took up land 1774- he is reportedly a son of David & Margaret from Antrim County Ireland who came to Marion Ct S.C. 1750

In Virginia records we find a Franc Cherry arriving at Norfolk in 1634. Later in 1704 Widow Churey is there collecting rents. This could be the Francis Cherry, son of Lettice Anger and Edward Cherry of Dublin Ireland, b about 1592. He would be in his 40's when he arrived in Norfolk. He came to Virginia under the sponsorship of Geo. Levitt. We do not again find the name Franc in the Norfolk records, and as John Cherry had property we are inclined to think it was his widow who collected rents
If this Franc was Francis son of Elizabeth E.H. & Sir
Francis b 1585 he would be 49 on arrival in America.
John Cherry came to Norfolk in 1637 sponsored by Oliver Spyre. Where he came from is not told. His will listed 1689 and inventory of estate 1670. See under Virginia for more complete history of these.

Richard Cherry came to Lancaster County 1655 sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Brent. This county is first mentioned 1652, later it was divided into Richmond & Essex. 1664 Middlesex set off. This Richard could be the third son of Margaret Watkins & Thomas Cherry born about 1593, or of Elizabeth E.H. & Sir Francis Cherry born about 1587 or a descendant of Richard born 1531 son of Elizabeth Bright and Thomas Cherry. Any of these are possibilities.
In Families of this time, names were carried down but there is one peculiarity in the Cherry family, naming of first sons after a brother.

A great part of the English data came from "History & Antiquities of the Hundred of Bray in the County of Berks," by Charles Kerry 1861.

of Thomas Cherry who went to Leicester County and died there of the first Richard mentioned, moved back to Cassington at the time the first Richard died. Think perhaps he inherited his grandfather's estate.

IRELAND

"Births, marriages and deaths recorded in Ulster at the time of the Protestant migration to America are very meagre. Those which relate to members of the Established Church rarely reach back to this period, except in the large towns and cities, and facts concerning members of dissenting chapels are still less common. It must be said, however, that many dissenters were married and buried by the Episcopal rector or curate to satisfy the law. Members of Presbyterian families not infrequently "conformed" in order to hold public office." Bolton.

It is from the Appendix to the 23th report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland that we get the name John Cherry, living near Hillsborough Down 1697.

Tyrone	This is the heart of the Scotch Irish Donegal	Country. Lands here were given to
Londonderry	Scotch Protestants by Queen Elizabeth
Antrim	and King James.

Fermanagh	These were not so closely associated
Monaghan	with the Protestant migration, though
Armagh	we know there were members of the Cherry family in Armagh.

Leinster is Roman Catholic County Down is less than a dozen miles from Ayrshire in Scotland.

1635 a desire to emigrate took firm hold upon the people in the towns near Belfast.

1650 Prisoners taken in battles of Dungar and Worcester were sold into service in the Colonies. No lists of these prisoners kept during Cromwell's time.

1680 Quaker migration began from Ireland.

1685 Several emigrants led by man named Ferguson went to Charleston S.C. little known of them.

1685 A few settlements were made in Maryland and Pennsylvania before 1685 by ships in the tobacco trade. The first Presbyterian church was organized in Charleston S.C.

These records secured from the Deputy Keeper of Belfast by Mrs Ross Cherry Sept 29 1932. From the records supplied by grandchildren of these men we know they were sons of Thomas Cherry, born in England 1629 m in Scotland (wife's name unknown) about 1650. Came to Ireland shortly after marriage. (There may have been other children of this couple, but these are all we know of now.)

WILLIAM CHERRY

These two were the fathers of David & Edward, but we do not know which is the father of which, we only know they came to America from Antrim County, Edward 1737 and David 1750, and that they said their grandmother was a Scotch woman, and that their grandfather was a son of Thomas Cherry and Ellen Pownee of England. They also had the French tradition.

DAVID CHERRY m Margaret and came to America 1750 with a son Robert, settled in Marion County, S.C. see S.C.

EDWARD CHERRY m Alice and came to Virginia 1737 with three grown sons, Thomas, William & Aaron. See Va.

with three small children. There is a tradition in the family that they were originally French Protestant, went to Scotland, then to North Ireland, but I have no evidence. I visited my father's birthplace some years ago, but the family seemed to have left no impression on the community."

We find the French tradition brought over by David and Edward Cherry, sons of John & William (or possibly grandsons) and clear statements that they were great grandsons of Ellen Powney and Thomas Cherry of England.

At revocation of Edict of Nantes about 70 000 French came to England, and later about 3 000 of them went over into Ireland.

1610 to 1640 many Scotch went into Ireland

1730 to 1750 many Scotch & Irish went to America, mostly into Penn.

1750 to 1775 Many Scotch & Irish from Penn. moved Southward into the Carolinas.

LANCASTER COUNTY

RICHARD CHERRY

came to Lancaster County, sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Brent, Immigrants from 1623 to 1666 by Geo. Cabell Greer.

1656 a small party of settlers went from Virginia to the Albermarle Section of N.C.

(As so many Virginia records are lost I can not tell whether Richard stayed in Lancaster County or not.)

Eastern Counties

- Lancaster
- Essex
- Northumberland
- Glouster
- Middlesex

"Families of Virginia" by Meade p 115 Vol 2 says first mention of Lancaster County is found in 1652. It was divided into Richmond & Essex and Rappahanoek abolished and Middlesex set off 1664.

Possibly Richard went to N. Carolina and is the ancestor of the many Cherries there, or possibly he stayed in Lancaster and is the ancestor of the James Chorry in York City mentioned in 1814. There is also a Cherry Hall in York City. Cherry Grove is mentioned as a Parish in Wm & Mary Quarterly series 2 Vol 14 p 339 & 341

Cherry Grove became Camp Stuart during the war of 1812
Cherry Point mentioned in war of 1812 in manouvers of 1814

1775 Sarah Cherry indented servant at Whitehaven, Ship Mary & Ann" emigrant from England to Va N.E. Register Vol 24 p 326.

From the records we have the Richard Cherry born 1567 son of Elizabeth Elliott Holmes & Sir Francis Cherry seems the only possibility. As Sir Francis' son Edward went to Ireland and Robert being the eldest by the second wife would probably inherit the estates in England. It seems entirely probable that the younger sons Francis b 1585 and Richard b 1587 might be the Franc & Richard who came to America. See page 10 for this family.

Richard would be 68 years old at that time, but older men did migrate, especially in the Cherry family. His brother Franc would have been in America 12 years, and if times were bad what more natural than to join him?

We never find the name Franc again in the records.

Francis is not a favorite in the Cherry family. We find a few girls names Frances in Virginia, but in no other states so far.

See pages 10 & 13 for the probable relationship of Franc Cherry. If we are correct in this guess he would be 53 years old on his arrival in America.

Edward left record saying he was a grandson of Thomas Cherry born in England 1629 who went to Scotland and married a Scotch woman and shortly after marriage came to Antrim County, and that David and Margaret Cherry who came to Marion County, S.C. were his cousins. (Both families had the French Tradition)

1763 William and Thos. Cherry (sons of Edward & Alice secured large grants of land in Berkely County, from the Governor.

1765 William Cherry, married, but having no children died and left his property to his brother Thomas. As he does not mention his brother Aaron, it is probably that Aaron is already dead.

"I give to my beloved wife one third of all my property. I give to my brother, Thomas two thirds of my real estate and two thirds of my personal property."

To Col James Wood Mar 26 1780 Dear Sir:

I take the liberty to recommend to you the bearer, CAPT WILLIAM CHERRY, a gentleman who entered the service in the spring of 1776, as Second Lieutenant Capt Isaac Bealls Co and served with as much reputation as any officer of the rank, till the army is now molded, when he became a supernumerary officer, a Captain. He is now called into the State service in the Western Regiments which are to be embodied in the point where you command. He expects to take his proper command in the Regiment and depends much on your seeing justice done him. You probably remember him as he served in the Grand Army in the same time you did. I would have wrote to Col Crocket, but have not the honor of being acquainted with that Gentleman. He will request your interest so far as to obtain him proper justice. I can only say Sir, that he is an officer, from his former service which I think entitled to the strictest justice, and shall esteem it a particular favor if you'll have him placed in his proper rank in the Regiment. I have the honor to be sir,

Your most Obt hble servant

There were two men named Andrew Cherry in Virginia, Hampshire County in the Census of 1790 one had a family of 6 and the other a family of 8. Perhaps this Andrew listed in census of 1790 is the one with the family of 8. As the taking of the Census lasted 18 months, and we know of two families who moved during that time and are listed in two different states, this might be the case above. But it could not be the case with the Andrew Cherry listed in 1785 we think. There must be at least three men named Andrew in America by 1790.

Peterson Cherry 1 son under 16

1794 Benjamin Cherry is listed as owning 400 A in Bedford Ct but we do not know if this is Benjamin Sr or Jr.

The name Benjamin is not very common in the Cherry family. We found it in Norfolk Va a record of a Benjamin Cherry living there in 1740, but nothing to tell how old he was. As many Virginia people came into Pa., and then went to Carolina, we think that Benjamin Cherry from Norfolk came into Pa., m Mary Patterson, (The Benjamin of 1740 might be father of the one who married Mary Patterson, and be the one listed as inmate of Chester County living there in 1769, while the son who m Mary Patterson would be the Revolutionary soldier living in Bedford County in 1785- As many of the men of Bedford County each listed as receiving Depreciation pay and owning 400 A in that county, it may be the land was given them in lieu of money- Benjamin Jr or Benjamin III as he may very well be, and his brother Patterson Cherry moved into N. Pa Archives Series 3 Vol 24

David does not appear at all in the English records of the the Irish branch of the family, and comes down in a few of the American families.

The first time it is found in America is at Wickford R.I.

It comes down in the Virginia records in 1790 and 1823
There was a David Cherry in N. Carolina Lincoln County 1750 p 138 (There is a possibility this is the one supposed to have settled in the Pee Dee River Section as the family tradition in this family is confused with the Chester County members of the family.) This David Cherry in Lincoln County in 1790 was born in 1750, and might be a son of David & Margaret from Ireland and a brother of their known son Robert.

JEREMIAH CHERRY

Pa Archives Series 3 Vol 26

p 412 Jeremiah Cherry listed as owning 300 A in Westmoreland County 1784.

We do not find this name in the English Records

It appears first in America in Norfolk County Va. in the will of Thomas Cherry (son of John II & Julia Ann) who died 1748. He leaves first to his son Jeremiah, also a gun and sword. Jeremiah m Mary Ferbee and their daughter Tamor was bapt 1752. There were undoubtedly other children and the fact that Jeremiah had already been using the 100 A as his father said "This division has already been made." Such divisions were usually made on marriage. It appears most of Thomas Children were married on his death in 1748. Va- p 25

From the Pa records it appears that Jeremiah and Mary went into Pa. 39- 1784 in Westmoreland County. Here Jeremiah died some time before 1793, for on that date Mary held 400 A of land in Bedford County.

From the habit of the Cherry men naming their sons not for themselves but for their brother, we think the Jeremiah Cherry who was in Portsmouth County in 1790 with a family of 3 was probably a son of Jeremiah's brother William, rather than a son of Jeremiah himself, but this is not certain. This man would have been born about 1770. p 39

Another man named Jeremiah Cherry was living in Martin County N. Carolina in 1790 with his wife one son and 1 slave.
p 135-138

It is probably that the Jeremiah owning land in Pa in 1784 is the son of Thomas who died 1748 he would be in his 60's at that time, and dead before 1790 when his wife probably took up the land in Bedford County, where so many of the family also held grants of 400 A.

Which of the two Jeremiahs (one in Portsmouth County Va and one in Martin County N. Carolina, both born about 1770) are the son of the original Jeremiah we are unable to tell.

Moses was born in Virginia now part of W. Va 1748 he was a son of Thomas and Rachel.

Moses Jr was born in Augusta County 1738

Moses and his brothers moved into Pennsylvania, then to Ohio, Moses going finally to Ill where he died.

Ill. papers and collection of Loose MSS kept in 2 boxes in Virginia State Library, Richmond Va March 1779_1791 D 73 D 79
There Moses Cherry is listed as a Revolutionary Soldier of Virginia living in Ill. Evidently he came into Pa. after the Revolution, where his brothers John and Aaron had served during that war.

Va. p 16-32-34

There is the possibility that another Moses Cherry lived in Pa or came there from Ireland, and later moved to Carolinas where he married Elizabeth Tarbert, and died in S.C. in 1782.

NATHAN CHERRY

In 1748 we find a Nathaniel Cherry listed in Western part of Virginia, but the tax collector said he could not find him when he went to collect tax. Is it possible that Nathaniel Cherry of Va. is the Nathan Cherry listed in West Fallowfield Township, Chester County Pa in 1753? As this was a customary pathway of migration we think it possible. The only other Nathan is found in N. Carolina in 1790 and would be a son of this man rather than the one mentioned in 1753 or 1748. Census of 1790 lists a Nathan Cherry with a son over 16, two daughters, a wife and one slave in Pitt County. His contemporaries living there at that time were, Solomon Cherry, Lemuel Cherry & Samuel Cherry.

TO THE MEMORY OF CAPT SAMUEL CHERRY

by his friend Benjamin Coe

The hero is gone, and deeply lamented
The hero who fought by the side of the brave,
The hero who served in the fields that were tented,
For victory or an honorable grave.

The hero is gone, but his memory for ages
Will live in the land where freedom is revered.
While history stands recorded in pages,
While the rights of his country are ever revered.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

The hero is gone, never returning,
Few are now left to tell us his story
Tears of the warriors in bitterness burning
Will fall on their vet'ran companion in glory.

The hero is gone, his seasons of glory,
His springs, his summers and autumns are ended
In the winter of age, with a heart that was heavy
He left us with freedom and liberty blended.

Descendants of Capt Samuel Cherry came to Ohio.

Died in Huron County, O. Sept 2 1835 (Reg. Rejected 1909) Note- There is no record of the service of this man, other than Rejected Pension claim given as reference W.C.P.G. 12-18-26

See N.J. p 82

Euphemia & William Cherry had a son Reuben born at Morristown N.J., but the date in the church record looks like 1768. There may be error in the church record too, because Reuben and his half sister Euphemia were entered on the same page of the church record 1783, both as Children of Wm Cherry & wife. Reuben was a son of William and his first wife Euphemia who died of consumption in 1776, while his sister, Euphemia was a daughter of William and his second wife Rachel. Euphemia's birth date is clearly 1783 Sept 29. This is only a small difference in date, and may be a mistake on the part of whoever made the entry. This is the only Reuben Cherry recorded in Morristown, so it must be the same one. If he were born in 1765 he would only be 11 when he enlisted. We have many records of boys that young enlisting, so I do not know why he was rejected. New Jersey records were largely destroyed in the wars, and we have established many soldier records that the government did not have. I am rather inclined to believe this man did fight, for it would be at the time his mother died and very possibly there was little to keep him at home.

- 1824 Jacob Tupper is dead and administrators appointed for him, Richard Falley Administrator. He filed final statement of account in 1827 showing that he set over to the widow cash $27.43½ and one cow value $10.
- 1832 Farm put in trust to William Cherry as guardian of Ora Peters- later Ora Peters married James Nutting and her son Byron died aged 10 and was buried on the Cherry lot by William Cherry.
- 1835 Algona Tupper living in Venice, in Margaretta township (think she is the widow of Jacob Tupper and mother in law of Hannah Cherry Tupper) Isaac Tupper transferred property to her. After this Hannah & Isaac disappear from the county records. Where they moved to we do not know.
- 1836 William and Polly Cherry transferred land to Ora
and James Nutting
- 1839 William & Polly Cherry transferred land to William's sister Abigail Cherry wife of Jos. Miller.

When the Milan Cemetery was established about 1850 bodies from an older burial ground were moved there. This will account for members of the family who died before 1854 being buried in the cherry lot which was not purchased until that date.

ALEXANDER CHERRY

b about 1771. He might possibly be a brother of Henry Cherry the Revolutionary Soldier from N.J. but to date no definite information is available. There were only two men named Alexander Cherry in all the hundreds of records we have examined.

1. William & Mary College Quarterly of Virginia Series 2 Vol 1 p 131 (BB notation after this of 7 & 8)
1791 Alexander Cherry m Sophia Willie May 14

2. Firelands Pioneers Old Series Vol 3 p 78
Miranda Cherry, daughter of Alexander Cherry was born in Ca Cambridge Pa Mar 1830, came to Ohio with her parents 1834. m J.R.Strickland 1853, living in Norwalk, Huron County, O where she died Jan 25 1899.

3. ERIE COUNTY RECORDS, OHIO. (This county established 1838 before that time it was Huron County.)
These records show that on the following dates Alexander Cherry procured licenses for the following people.

1847 Charles Cherry and Alvira Witt, who was born in N.J. he had permission of Rhoda Phillips, Alvira's only living parent because she was under age. They lived at Milan, O.
1849 William Cherry and Susan Kirtland, Dec 7- Think this is the Capt William Cherry who lived at Huron, O. and had a boat on the lakes.
1850 Fannie Maria Cherry and Jerome Kinsman. Think they lived at or near Milan, as a Kinsman was one of the appraisers of the estate of one of the Cherry family of Milan 1853 Miranda Cherry and Jared R. Strickland feb 2 at Milan.

The question is whether this Alexander Cherry living in Erie County O was a son of the Alexander Cherry who was married to Sophia Willie in Virginia in 1791, or was he the fifth child of Henry & Abigail Cherry? A daughter of Charles Cherry said she thought he was her father's cousin, but was not sure. The family Bible gave no clue and no mention of Alexander.

WILLIAM CHERRY

b 1785 d 1813 in New Orleans while on way to take up land in Texas. m Mary Gilson of Winchester Va. They moved to Ohio probably in 1803, lived in Hamilton County where their descendants many of them still abide.

CHILDREN OF MARY GILSON AND WILLIAM CHERRY

1804 Mary m Edward R Johnson

Sarah Ellen

Betsy (this may be the same as Sarah Ellen, only a nickname) m Isaac Routh- 4 children

Aaron (probably named for his Uncle Aaron who went to Texas) went to Indiana

Ebenezer, became a Mormon lived in the West

William Cherry went back to Virginia in 1810 and again later to sell his property there. He may be the one who suggested Texas to his Uncle Aaron. Aaron had fought in the Revolution in Pa. owned land there 1794- see under Va. and Texas. His son John born in Ohio 1808. Mexico offered free land to settlers. It is supposed that the brothers Aaron and John who were sons of Thomas & Rachel see p 32- went to Texas with their nephew William, who left his family in Ohio. He died in New Orleans 1818 and the rest of the party arrived in Texas 1819, see under Texas.

RICHARD CHERRY

b 1789 (brother of William above b 1785. Both are sons of Mary Ann Hollenbach & Capt William Cherry. They came into Hamilton County to take up the land awarded their father for Revolutionary Services. During war of 1812 Richard supplied the Government with files for the repairs of arms during that time. Wife and children died before 1817, so he came to Ohio. He m a second time 1813 Martha Saunders.

ISAAC CHERRY
GREEN CHERRY

sons of Patrick & Rachel Wartman Cherry born in Boutetort County Va about 1787. One report says the two lived a while in Gallon, O. Another report says they went to Kentucky or Tenn, where their brother William had already located. See under N.J. p 96-97 brother of Isaac & Green. Nothing heard from these three brothers after they left their home in Boutetort County, Va. In 1939 Mrs Ross Cherry had a letter from a Mr. P.C. Cherry who was Supt of schools in either Berea or Bowling Green Ky., saying his grandfather was William Cherry, but he knew nothing about where he came from. As his letter is lost and efforts to reach him have failed, we have only pencil notes we made at the time. Apparently the children of William Cherry were*

WILLIAM CHERRY

George- Bailey- Mary Ann- Sally Lucinda- Allen A & John.

Later some one disputed this list. I am placing it here with the understanding it is subejct to correction.

JAMES CHERRY

b 1789 brother of Isaac, Green & William. He m Apr 1. 1813 Elizabeth Greenwood, daughter of William & Jane Greenwood. James served as Private in the war of 1812 Capt Robert Kyle's Co of Riflemen from the 48th Reg in the county of Boutetort Va. When he came to Ohio, he brought his parents, Rachel Wartman & Patrick Cherry with him. They made the trip from Virginia to Ohio on horseback in company of friends, going to the home of a friend th t had located in Ohio some time before. Patrick Cherry was a Catholic from the Southern part of Ireland (the first Patrick) there were 3 we believe- Rachel and her Children were Protestants.

George Robinson's History of Green County Pub 1902 p 134 lists James Cherry as soldier of 1812 died 1851 and is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

S. CAROLINA

From Scotch Irish Pioneers by Boulton we get the following:-

- 1685 Charleston and Port Royal settled by freem men, and men taken prisoners of war in battle, and deported from England and Ireland. Many of these early settlers died of fever and privation. The Presbyterian Church was started as early as 1685 in S. Carolina.
- 1732 A township twenty miles square along the Black River laid out for Irish Protestants and named Williamsburg. The great tide of migration did not come through Charleston, but from Ireland to Pa, then south through Virginia and N. Carolina.
- 1750 The first Cherry we find record of in S. Carolina is David & his wife Margaret, who came from Antrim, Ireland in 1750 and settled in the Pee Dee River section, Marion County. From the letters of Professor Harris we think David was a cousin of Edward Cherry and his wife Alice who came from Antrim County, Ireland 1737 and settled in Virginia, now Jefferson County W. Va, then a part of Old Orange County. The records of this family are found at Orange Court House, Va.

Descendants of George Cherry of Chester County, S.C. have claimed that Robert Cherry, son of David & Margaret was their ancestor, but there is an error here, as the George they claim as ancestor came directly from Ireland in 1773, and was a contemporary of Robert. Though Robert did have a son George, he is not the same one.

Mary Lylie Strange of Saluda St, Chester S.C. made certified copies of the Chester County records in 1941 which she furnished to Mrs. Ross Cherry of Sandusky. The dates of these records show the errors in connecting George Cherry who m Jeanet Chestnut, with Robert as his son. Mrs. Strange says, "My step-grandmother was a daughter of Elizabeth Cherry, and her husband William Westbrook- - It is my impression that the Chester County Cherrys never claimed any kin with the Marion County family."

- 1790 By this time there were not very many Cherries in S.C.

ROBERT CHERRY

(Mrs. Gladney thought Robert was a son of David and Margaret Cherry of Marion County, but Mrs. Strange thinks not.) Robert is not a common name in the Cherry family. The First Robert came to Lancaster County Pa in 1742- In 1765 Robert Cherry is listed as "inmate" of Lancaster County Pa again in 1767 and 1769- In 1771 Robert Cherry is listed in that county as Labourer.

Without date there is a Pension application for Robert Cherry of the Flying Camp of Pa. which says he is 67 years old and was wounded in the ankle. (Our first pension law was of 1818) so this man's pension must have been applied for after that date.

This could mean that the Robert of 1742 was probably not the same one as the Pensioner who might be the Robert of 1771. Perhaps they are father and son.

See Pa pages 33-39-65

The men named Robert in Iowa were named after Robert Greenwood and were descendants of Patrick and Rachel.

The Robert Cherry of Chester County, S.C. might be a son or grandson of the Penn men named Robert. This Robert was born about 1750 and m about 1770 to Letitia Leach. (Her name is also spelled Lettuce and Letty) in different records. Robert is buried in the church yard Union A.R.P Church one half mile above Richburg, Chester County S.C. The stone on his grave was placed there about 1910, probably to replace an older one that was much worn and difficult to read, for the S should obviously be an 8.

Stone reads

"Robert Cherry d July 15 1793" (his will 1793)
Below that "Letitia Leach, wife of Robert Cherry d May 10 1833."

ROBERT CHERRY

son of Col. John Cherry had a brother David, but it hardly seems possible that his son Samuel could have been married by 1803- Col John Cherry & Ann Jamison were both born 1773 and m about 1790- if Robert were their eldest son he would have been born about 1792 m 18 years later 1810 so he could hardly have been the father of samuel if he w s married in 1803. This however is not entirely clear from Mrs. Mason's letter. She was speaking of a deed made Jan 24 1803 and remarked "There was a Samuel Cherry in Pendleton at some time that m Susan Polk Reese, he was son of Robert and had a brother David."

These emigrants who had land or "warrants of Survey" before they came had their amounts of land opposite their names, others who did not have these warrants had their ages given, which was a lot of help in the cases of families. Many of these early settlers came down by land through Pa. and Va. Rev. Martin had a 400 A warrant which is just the amount he later owned in this county. GEORGE CHERRY had 100 A which was a head right for males 21 years and over. Many women had them, perhaps they had male kin who died.

No families were named in the ship lists where warrants of survey were granted but the 100 A would imply that George was single at the time.
